

Holes in Roles and the Click of Closure: PBSP* work with Maturational Deficits, Trauma and Holes in Family Systems History

April 3 & 4, 2004

Registration: Saturday 8:30 am

Workshops: 9:00am-4:30pm

Saturday & Sunday

Ridgeview Institute
Room 3995

South Cobb Drive
Smyrna, GA

$150 both days

($80 for day one only)

LEARN

- To identify the ways in which clients have taken on and still act out of the relationship roles that their parents were unable to fill
- To conceptualize maturational needs from a body-based perspective
- To address developmental deficits using PBSP techniques

A Clinical Workshop for Licensed Professionals

Day One

Morning Presentation

Maturational needs from a body-based perspective: Addressing developmental deficits

Late Morning Presentation

Micro-tracking consciousness: Externalizing internal family structures embodied in memory

Afternoon Presentation

Holes in relationship roles and the consequences on personality and partner choice

Addressing the effects of parental unfinished business, holes in roles
Demonstration of PBSP in action

Day Two

PBSP Theory: Addressing violations and trauma

Structures, PBSP Experiential Work

FOR INFORMATION OR DIRECTIONS

CALL

770-434-4568 x3001

REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____ Credential _____ License # _____ State _____

Address: _____

Phone #s: Work _____ Home _____

Email address: _____

Day One Only $80 Both Days $150 (At The Door: Day One $95, Both Days $160)

Please mail this form and your check payable to SEPS to:

Ridgeview Institute, 3995 South Cobb Dr., Smyrna, GA 30080

Attention: Diane Gay

6 CEU Hours for Each Day ***

Cancellations prior to March 15, 2004 will receive a refund minus $5 for processing.